Dear Sir

Agreeable to promise I visited the Cochrane Art Gallery but found the gentleman whom you wished me to see was ill, but I gave the building a very thorough and careful examination from basement to roof, and am of the opinion that two 48" Fans & Engines should be used, and placed in connection with sky light upon the roof, when the time comes to put them in we will be pleased to give a plan of location &c

Dear Mr. Barnes.

I thank you for sending me the prof of the Corcoran Gallery catalogue - as far as printed in prof.

I do not approve of the detailed description of the Parthenon and its history.
The Art Catalogue is not a history book. They can't on Catalogue be modelled after the catalogues of the great European ~~sculptor~~<sup>Galler</sup> sculptors? If I could have any way, I would abbreviorate your account of the Parthenon by at least one half! ~~In my opinion~~ There should be no description of the Parthenon beyond that which is necessary to explain the locale & the probable position the figures.

If, however, we must quite from the former works of Greek history

under this head, let us be consistent in our spelling. If we spell "Pisistratos" according to the Greek custom, we must spell the other names in Greek - Aheidas, Thou-kydides, Kallikrates. & I think it would be better to follow the received usage, and write "Pisistratus".
I dare say that all this will sound to you very cruel - as it would

BALDWIN BROS. & CO.,

Forwarders to All Parts of the World.

ESTABLISHED 1848.

IMPORTANT TO SHIPPERS.

The attention of transient shippers is especially called to our Forwarding facilities from New York to all the principal ports and inland points throughout the world. Such goods are not treated as EXPRESS matter, but are forwarded as FREIGHT at lowest rates obtainable, with or without insurance, as directed. Bills of Lading and letter of advice sent in all cases to consignees, and Copy of Bill of Lading to shipper.

Shippers of small lots, whose custom is to pay the minimum Bill of Lading rate, can in many instances forward by Express at a saving of expense and great economy in time. When so requested, we shall be glad to exercise our judgment for shippers' benefit.

In all cases, whether shipments are made as freight or express, the sender is relieved of the trouble and expense attending clearance, we charging them only actual cartage, and small fee as shipping commission. A single trial will convince any shipper who may be desirous, from motives of economy or otherwise, of the superior working of our FREIGHT FORWARDING system.

We also beg to invite attention to our special EXPRESS Service to Havana and Nassau, to which points our remarks above will apply with equal force.

Mark all shipments to our care as below. Labels and stencils for this purpose will be promptly forwarded to shippers upon application to
